

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Sonia Kovalevsky Mathematics Day

SATURDAY, APRIL 29TH 2017

This one day program focuses on helping participants build self-belief and mathematical confidence by encouraging and nurturing excellence in mathematics and sciences.

We aim to provide exposure to expert mathematical training from accomplished professional women who may serve as role models and mentors.

Open to girls in grade 5th-8th!

Organizers: Danielle Walsh,
Maria Lorenz, and Irina Mitrea
